ELEVEN FIFTY ACADEMY OFFERS WORDPRESS COURSE

Fishers, IN: Eleven Fifty Academy announces the addition of courses in WordPress, the most widely used website platform in the industry. Since launching on May 27th, 2003, WordPress powers more than 27% of all websites worldwide including: SONY Music, Mercedes Benz, The Walt Disney Company, The Official Star Wars Blog, Playstation.blog, BBC America, and TechCrunch. There are thousands of sites powered by WordPress within the Indianapolis-area alone, including ElevenFifty.org.

The Eleven Fifty Academy course in WordPress provides a unique opportunity for a broad range of individuals. It is designed for nonprofits, entrepreneurs, administrative staff, graphic designers, developers, business owners, and anyone interested in learning about WordPress. Courses range from beginner to advanced to accommodate interest and experience levels.

With nearly 30% of websites built using WordPress, employers are looking for competent professionals with these skills across all industries, creating possibilities for growth within the software development community.

"Eleven Fifty Academy continues our tradition of serving our community by adding relevant, high-impact courses," says Eleven Fifty Academy founder Scott A. Jones. "Our WordPress course is a unique opportunity for nonprofits and other businesses, small and large, to optimize their resources by keeping things in-house and helping enable critical capabilities that matter most in our digital world, such as fundraising, making money, and raising big awareness."

Eleven Fifty Academy's WordPress Developer course instructs the necessary skills to design, develop, and modify WordPress sites. Roughly 50% of all jobs require some level of coding knowledge. WordPress skills are in demand across nearly all industries.

Eleven Fifty Academy is a nonprofit organization focused upon high quality, immersive software development courses designed to accelerate the learning curve for people of all ages and skill sets. The mission of Eleven Fifty Academy is to build an ecosystem of coding talent that financially benefits the individual, their employer, and their community. For more information, visit elevenfifty.org
